PRAYER MATTERS

COMFORT RWANDA CHARITY SHOP APPEAL

Callum Henderson will be visiting Penicuik on Sunday 12th Dec and has asked if we could bring donations for the Comfort Rwanda Charity Shop to raise funds for their work in Rwanda.

Good quality clothes, books, bric a brac are all welcome. If you are planning a pre-Christmas clear out, please bring your unwanted "trash" and turn it into "treasure" on Sunday 12th December! Thanks

GIFT SERVICE 5TH DECEMBER

We are looking for unwrapped gifts for girls and boys of all ages supplied with wrapping paper.

The gifts donated will be given to Midlothian Social Work Department to distribute to families in need in Penicuik and throughout Midlothian.

BETHANY - CARING CHRISTMAS TREE

This winter we are expecting nearly 1,000 homeless people to come to the Care Shelter in Edinburgh seeking hot food, safe shelter, a bed for the night and help with their homelessness problems. Please show your care this Christmas and help Bethany to meet the needs of rough sleepers in Edinburgh.

For the cost of one Caring Christmas Tree* Bethany can provide a rough sleeper with a bed, hot food and support at the Care Shelter. If you have already bought your Caring Christmas Tree, thank you. If not, the process is quick, simple and convenient, so why not click on the link or pick up the phone to buy a tree now?

www.caringchristmastrees.com or 0845 111 8733

You can also make a donation to support the Care Shelter through the Caring Christmas Trees website

Thank you
Margaret Johnson CCT Project Manager (Bethany)

All our trees are Nordman firs grown in sustainably managed forests in Scotland, and as they're harvested later than many other Christmas trees, they'll be of the highest, freshest quality when purchased.
